Dear Mr. Veerabasaviah,

Instructions as usual have been issued to all the courts, through the Chief Court, to adjourn the cases of such of the Pleaders and parties, who happen to be -- Representative Assembly members, during the Sessions of the Assembly. It appears, that you have not yet received orders about this. There is perhaps delay in transmission from the Chief Court. This is to inform you that such orders have issued. You may kindly intimate your colleague also about this.

Yours sincerely,

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that you will be pleased to arrange to send instructions direct- to the District Judge & District Magistrates of Mysore, to adjourn the Cases of these Lawyers who are to attend the meeting of the Legislative Council.

A general order will save the trouble of intimating every time.

However for the present, instructions may be sent tomorrow alone, as the Judges refuse adjournment unless they recieve intimation. The matter may be kindly treated as urgent.
